A Goldwinger's version of the Night Before Christmas

Twas the night before Christmas
Gold Wing Style

Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house not a creature was stirring not even a spouse

The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, in hopes that Saint Wing Stuff soon would be there.

My co-rider and I were nestled all snug in our bed

while visions of chrome and lights danced in our heads;

I in my GWRRR cap and Momma
in her chaps

Had just settled down for a long winter nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter

I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I ran with my Sig

Nobody better be messing with my rig

A large box truck I saw coming from town

I knew in a moment it must be big Brown.

The driver he looked very tired and distraught

My excitement kept rising I wonder what he brought

He was dressed in all brown a UPS

patch on his sleeve

His face had a scowl, he was working on Christmas Eve.

Several large boxes he had on his cart

I hope they were filled with a shiny new part.

He looked at me closely as I ran to him near

His only words spoken was for me to sign here.

I scribbled my name and grabbed the boxes quick

My excitement kept rising, I might be sick.

He sprang to his truck and drove out of sight,

Yelling out the window, this is my last stop of the night.

But I heard him exclaim as he drove out of sight,

Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night.

Merry Christmas from your Chapter staff and we hope to see you at the Christmas party at the beautiful home of Rich and Marilyn located at 1910 GA Highway 195, Leesburg at 6:00PM on 12 December.

Motorist Awareness Making Believers One At A Time

There is a story of a little girl who walked the beach each day picking up star fish that had washed ashore. She would then throw them back into ocean so that they might live. She was told that there was no way she could ever save all the washed up. She agreed that the statement was true but said she made a difference for each one she through back. Motorist awareness is much like the little girl and the star fish. There are so many motorists that ignore motorcycles. There is probably no way to reach them all. But each of us can make a difference one motorist at a time. We are often approached by curiosity seekers when we are out and about on the Wing. Besides talking about our pride and joy we need to weave in the fact that we share the road and motorists need to be on the look out for us. By doing this we are making a difference one motorist at a time. Our action just might save someone's life. If each member of a chapter of 25 talked with one motorist a week, in a year, 1,300 motorist would be enlightened. Imagine the number if every GWRRA member talked with just one motorist a week!! I would submit that we all can find at least one star fish a week to throw back into the sea. Ride Safe Rich Morgan
